GEORGETOWN DIVIDE RECREATION DISTRICT
ORDINANCE NO. 1

Summary of Ordinance No. 1 – Rules and Regulations

Ordinance No. 1 – Rules and regulations sets specific rules and regulations for the use of District Parks and facilities that the District operates for the public. The Rules and Regulations are deemed necessary for the purpose of promoting community health, safety, and the general welfare of persons using District Park and District operated facilities.

In addition to existing law controlling behaviors and use of controlled substances, the District's Rules and Regulations also restrict the use of alcoholic beverages, and tobacco in and around District Parks and operated facilities to prohibit possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages at Georgetown Park unless by District authorized permit, and to prohibit the smoking of tobacco within 100 feet of District playground facilities.

The following Table of Contents outlines the Rules and Regulations. A copy of the Ordinance No. 1 – Rules and Regulations can be obtained by contacting the Georgetown Divide Recreation District by telephone at 530-823-9090 or 530-333-4000; by email at mail@gdrd.org

Rules and Regulations

In order that residents of the Georgetown Divide Recreation District may use and receive maximum benefit from District facilities, parklands and programs, the Board of Directors of the Georgetown Divide Recreation District hereby establish the following rules and regulations concerning use of District facilities and parklands.

Chapter 100 – General Provisions

Section 101 - Authority
§101(a) Authority: All sections of this Ordinance are adopted pursuant to Section 5780, et seq., of the Public Resources Code of the State of California and apply to all District facilities and parklands. A title, where used, does not limit the language of a section.

Section 102 - Exceptions
§102 (a) The following regulations shall apply to all persons except:

(1) They shall not apply to employees of the District, District Board members, District volunteers, or to its concessionaires or their employees engaged in and acting within the scope of their authorized duties and concession activities. However, District employees, District volunteers and District concessionaires and their employees shall abide by the laws of the State of California and all applicable county and/or municipal ordinances.

(2) They shall not apply to persons possessing a special use permit or contract when such permits or contracts specifically suspend a section or sections of the regulations providing said permittees are in compliance with all conditions of the permit or contract and all other regulations.

(3) They shall not apply to lease holders where such use is expressly provided for in the terms and conditions of their leases and where they are in compliance with all other regulations.

(4) They shall not apply to public safety employees of Federal, State, County, or Municipal governments acting within the scope of their authorized duties and with the knowledge of the District.

Section 103 - Application
§103(a) Special regulations enacted for an area or a subject do not preclude the application of general regulations unless expressly so indicated.

§103(b) Any judge or commissioner of a judicial District lying wholly or in part within the District, shall have jurisdiction over all prosecutions under this article for violations adopted by the Board of Directors.

§103(c) All persons entering upon District facilities or parklands shall abide by the rules and regulations of the District, the laws of the State of California and all applicable county and/or municipal laws or ordinances that pertain. In District facilities and parklands, District rules and regulations will supersede all other local ordinances when they are in conflict, as per section 5786.1(j) of the Public Resources Code.

§103(d) Parents shall be held responsible for the acts of their minor children. Damage to property of the District shall be imputed to parents having custody or control of the minor (as set forth in the Civil Code 1714.1).

§103(e) The District or its authorized representatives shall diligently enforce the provisions of these regulations and may withdraw or revoke the privilege of access to District parklands or the use of any District facility for reasons of safety, security or resource protection, or from any person or group violating any provision of these regulations or any other law or ordinance.

§103(f) Unless otherwise specified, Every violation determined to be an infraction is punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for first violation, a find not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for a second violation of the same ordinance within one year, and a find not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for each additional violation of the same ordinance within one year.

§103(h) Where specified, a violation of these rules will not be considered an infraction but a misdemeanor. Any violation considered a misdemeanor will be punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000.00 dollars or by imprisonment in the County jail for a period not to exceed one month, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§103(i) The following sections shall be considered misdemeanors:
§303(b), failure to obey an evacuation order
§501(d), dumping into/near water body
§501(e), depositing commercial quantities of waste
§514(a), reckless behavior
§517(a), possession/use of firearm
§518(c), failure to obey an evacuation order due to fire hazard
§520(a), possession/use of fireworks
§521(a), vandalism
§704(a), failure to obey authorized personnel/disturbing the peace
§705(a), failure to obey ejection order
§802(k), reckless operation of motor vehicle
§1003(h), domestic animal abandonment
§1003(l), vicious animal
§1003(m), training animal for attack
§1101(a), harming wildlife
§1101(f), releasing wildlife
§1102(a), harming/collecting flora
§1103(a), harming/collecting geological features
§1104(a), harming/collecting cultural artifact

§103(j) Headings and divisions are for convenience only and shall not be considered in the interpretation of this ordinance and shall not in any way affect the conduct or activities covered in other sections of this ordinance.

§103(k) If any chapter, section, subsection, subparagraph, sentence, or clause of this ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity, or unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of the remaining portions of this ordinance; and the Board of Directors declares that this paragraph, sentence, and clause thereof would have been adopted irrespective of such possible finding of invalidity or unconstitutionality and to that end, the provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be severable.

§103(l) Where a section herein or rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto is amended or repealed, acts and commissions occurring prior thereto may be prosecuted as though such section, rule or regulation had not been so amended or repealed.

§103(m) These Rules and Regulations shall take effect and be in force upon their passage and appeal process of ninety (90) days.
